Miss. D. H. A. Blackmore:

Gentlemen:

If you will examine my original bids, you will find that I made no bids for Lot #1110 as it is a corner lot in a foreign country and as you know I collect only ancient and United States. Since then after measuring my lots, you write asking me to increase my bids on Lots #1111 & 1101 to $7.50 & $7.00 — and $5.00 respectively. I thought it strange that you would ask me to increase my bid on Lot #1101 from $2.00 to $6.00 but I presume that I was underestimated a rare Canadian dynamite. If correct I gave my permission. I thought I sent a duplicate of my bids, but if you care to show me that I made any effort for #1110 I'm sure it is very much on me. As I am compelled to return it to you which will be done when I hear from you.
